

MORNING APPEAL

WEDNESDAY,.....JUNE 28

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

THE SILVER PARTY AND THE SCHOOLS.

The APPEAL hopes that the present unpleasant wrangle over the patronage of the School will come to an end, without the necessity of displacing any of the teachers.

Of the qualification of these ladies the APPEAL knows very little. There is no such a thing as a perfect teacher, but we are induced to believe that Carson has as good a corps of teachers as any town of its size in the United States.

After the election it was discovered that no School Trustees had been elected, because of some technicality of the law, and the Central Committee of the Silver Party recommended to the District Attorney who had the appointing of the Trustees, by virtue of being ex-Officio School Superintendent, that he appoint the regular Silver party nominees.

The Central Committee sent for those two gentlemen and received their assurance that they would make no changes in the Schools except for cause.

These gentlemen now say that their pledge to the Committee was only for the first School term. The Committee understood that it was to be in force during the term of the Trustees.

It was because of this, that the Central Committee desire to repudiate the action of the Trustees.

It does not claim, however, any right to govern their actions.

The members of the Silver Party are almost a unit against it. No one doubts the splendid educational qualification of Miss Olcovich. She would be an addition to the School, but she never ought to be placed there while her father serves as a School Trustee.

The Silver Party fought the policy by which Bray as a County Commissioner let contracts to himself. We regard the appointment by a School Trustee of one of his own family as an analogous case.

If any school teacher is removed, she has a right to demand of the Trustees the reason of such removal, and if she demands an investigation of qualification, the Trustees cannot refuse her.

The APPEAL will espouse the cause of any teacher in the schools, whose removal is contemplated by the Trustees, unless they are able to show good and sufficient reason for the action.

On page 219 of last week's Dairyman is an inquiry for a "Chemical Dehorner." Caustic potash will do the job. A 5 cent stick will take the horns off from fifty calves, and prevent further growing. When the calf is a few days old, or when the horn can be felt, shear the hair off from around it, then dip the finger in water and wet the horn; now take the stick of potash, wrap a paper around one end so you can handle it without getting it on the fingers, rub the end of the stick of potash on the horn while it is wet and let the calf go. The job is done. The writer has cows that were treated this way when calves that have just as smooth heads as any mooley, not the least sign of a horn. —W.Caldwell in Hoards Dairyman.

It is generally believed that every legitimate bank that has closed its doors has ample assets to pay every dollar to depositors. They could not realize on their securities in a day, however, and were therefore compelled to suspend payment temporarily. Nearly all the California banks that suspended last week have resumed business and the crisis seems to be past in that State.

Marcus Boruck of the Spirit of the Times, seriously advocates the canonizing of preachers who are too sporty with the spring pullets of their flock. He wants to begin on Rev. Dr. Reams and Deacon C. E. Moser. We suggest to Mr. Boruck that before he heralds this new idea to the world, that he take a little of his own medicine and report results.

The shutting of the free coinage of silver by India, has raised pandemonium in the New York money market.
